Organization Updates – January 2019

Epilepsy South Eastern Ontario

We are pleased to commence with monthly ESEO Group Meetings for the 2019 year. Join us for a Question & Answer session with Nurse Sandy Weatherby!

January's group meeting will be a great opportunity to learn about Epilepsy and get your questions answered by Nurse Sandy Weatherby!

WHEN: Wednesday, January 30, 2019

TIME: 6:30-8:00 pm

WHERE: 116 Barrie St., Kingston, Ontario Queens University – BioSciences Building, Room #1102.

SPEAKER: Sandy Weatherby, RN.

We look forward to your attendance. Seating is limited, please RSVP by Monday January 28th, 2019 to Epilepsy South Eastern Ontario Client Services Coordinator, Emilia Leslie: Phone: (613) 542-6222, or by Email: eleslie@epilepsyresource.org.

SPEAKER BIO:

After Sandy obtained her RN Diploma from St. Michael's School of Nursing in Toronto, she moved back to Kingston. Sandy worked in Paediatric Nursing for 15 years at KGH, until moving into Neuro nursing and became involved with Clinical Research with many drug trials in Epilepsy, migraine, Subarachnoid Hemorrhage, Parkinson, Memory Disorders, and Herpes Encephalitis. Also, during this time Sandy held the position of Coordinating the Canadian Stroke Registry for Eastern Ontario.

While working in research she was also the Coordinator of the Movement Disorder Clinic for 25 years, after which she became more involved in the Epilepsy Clinic. It became apparent there was a need for someone to answer calls and look after prescription renewals for patients. Phone support for patients with epilepsy was a positive addition to the Epilepsy clinic and can relieve stress and can save a clinic visit. April 2018, KHSC opened the Epilepsy Monitoring Unit (EMU), so now Sandy also helps with coordinating the patients for the unit and follow-ups after discharge.

Light refreshments will be provided

Anyone affected by epilepsy is welcome!

We look forward to your attendance.

If you are in need of transportation to this or any of our services, please contact Emilia Leslie at 613-542-6222 or eleslie@epilepsyresource.org
